

VICTORIA BAXTER

THE NEW LOVE STRATEGIST

HELPING SINGLE WOMEN WIN AT LOVE

About Victoria Baxter

Known as the "New Love Strategist", Certified life, dating, and relationship coach Victoria Baxter passionately coaches single Christian women, helping them win at love. She uses her gifts of knowledge, exhortation, and wisdom to bring comfort, hope, and clarity to women seeking answers in their singleness. "I, myself, have struggled in this area. I know what it feels like to want love and marriage so badly, but to not be even remotely prepared for it. I encourage single women to prepare! My purpose is to help single women dwell in God's love, develop self-love, and discover true love," Victoria says.

After horrible choices with relationships, Victoria was someone that was desperate for love, anxious to have her happily ever after. She believed in God, but didn't necessarily trust that He would give her heart's desire. After experiencing a devastating heartbreak, she cried out to God one day and He spoke to her clearly, telling her "reach My daughters!" She then used her pain as her platform for power, helping single women that could relate to the frustration that often stems from loneliness.

Coach Vee has self-published 6 books, including her best seller, Debunking the Fairytale of Boaz. In addition, she has taught live courses, workshops, and webinars, created masterclasses, hosted and spoken at numerous women's conferences. She also hosts an inspirational and teaching podcast, Freedom Reigns, for single Christian women across the world. As a daughter of the most-high God, she uses her gifts to help her clients and audience heal, find contentment, and prepare, all with Christ at the center. "I want women to see that He is doing a new thing in their life. But first, one must forget the former things. I teach them how," she says.

Testimonial:

"She is highly anointed, professional, and knows her stuff! It's more than a session, it's a life changing event that incorporates Christian values, Holy spirit filled wisdom/knowledge that will impact your life in a phenomenal way! I highly recommend for those of you who are seeking clarity, direction, and guidance concerning the matters of your life! I thank God for our crossing paths! "
